USING THE INTERNSHIP ASSIGNMENT MANUAL

All the forms and readings you will need (apart from the books) will be available on the Outpost website at theoutpost.ipower.com/xa/ - the password is “XAinternship”.

This ten-month curriculum is designed to give you the knowledge, skills, and feedback necessary for you to minister effectively on secular colleges and universities. There are four concurrent assignments that will consume your life.

- Component #1: Learning To Pray: you will read many devotional materials and pray a lot.
- Component #2: Learning The Bible: you will read the whole Bible.
- Component #3: Learning Theology: you will read one very large book and one smaller book and debate them with Duncan.
- Component #4: Learning Campus Ministry: this will be the most diverse part of your training. We have broken up the competencies you need to acquire into specific modules. A typical module may contain one or more Bible studies, some assigned readings, some practical tasks, and a conversation with your coach. You will also be required to teach something to someone else in each module – this is a key part of the learning experience. Your coach will need to sign off on each accomplishment, and they always have the right to assign you extra tasks (or to waive some if they feel you already have a given competency mastered).

To each learning party, please bring your Bible, Renewal Theology (Tuesday) and this manual (Thursday).

COMPONENT #1: LEARNING THE BIBLE

There are 1,189 chapters in the Bible. You have 10 months in your program; therefore, you need to read 119 chapters per month. That works out to about 4 chapters per day. Once you read a chapter, cross it off in order to track your progress. Your coach will ask to see this page periodically.

COMPONENT #2: LEARNING TO PRAY

At the beginning of each week do the assigned reading and then spend time in prayer throughout the week. The lessons you learn from the reading should find their way into your prayer times. The dates shown are Wednesdays, start your prayer week then so that the Learning Party on Tuesday “ends” your prayer week. Please rate each book 1-5, 5 being “life-changing,” 1 being “eh, could’ve skipped it.”

You must schedule 30 minutes a day of prayer.

COMPONENT #4: LEARNING SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

The text we will use for our study of systematic theology is J. Rodman Williams' Renewal Theology: Systematic Theology from a Charismatic Perspective. It will be supplemented by Winkie Pratney's The Nature and Character of God. At each session have Duncan (not your usual coach) initial your readings. You are to read each segment before that week's learning party. Gray and yellow boxes have no reading assignment. The reading can be pretty dense and your discussions at the learning parties will require your active involvement, so plan (and read) accordingly.

COMPONENT #5: LEARNING CAMPUS MINISTRY

There are 20 modules listed below. The date in the far left column is the learning party by which you should have them completed. Some of the “Do Stuff” assignments will need to be completed later due to the nature of the assignment, but at least the readings should be completed by these dates. Included is also a final project that you should look at and get started on soon. You may, of course, work ahead, if there is a particular topic that you’d like to study earlier in the year. Some of the modules have very time consuming assignments such as entire books to read. Plan your time accordingly.

Create a body map for your campus.	April 8

COMPILE IT

Task	Complete By	Completion Date	Coach's Initials
Put together a 5 year plan for planting your campus with year 1 as the year leading up to your launch.	April 8
Prepare a 45-minute presentation of your plan (followed by 30 minutes of Q+A). Be creative with your format (charts and graphs, well-edited video interviews with students, campus comparisons, campus life photos, PowerPoint, verbal explanations, etc). The presentation should be well organized, engaging, thorough, and persuade us as to why this campus needs a XA. It should include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Relevant observations of the university (resources for student groups, student spiritual norms, unique aspects of the university, primary educational fields, the specific needs of the student body, etc). 2. A plan for launching (division of team member responsibilities, what each year will look like, break down of when you will introduce new components, strategic outreach opportunities, possible promotions, 	April 8

etc). 3. Your vision for your XA's DNA and goals the first 5 years (identify your ministry's values, your individual responsibilities, and practically how will you achieve these things? Ex 1: if you decide missions should be highly valued, you will need to decide what in your ministry will concretely make it that way. Ex 2: Small group structure and who (staff or students) will teach in year one? In year two? etc). Include here how you will evaluate your progress and effectiveness.
